Bennett Government Gets Behind Wheat

OTTAWA, Dec. 23.—Arrangements have been concluded that ensure the orderly marketing of the 1930 wheat crop of western Canada.

This explicit announcement of the prime minister, Mr. Hon. R. B. Bennett, last night reflects the action to be taken by the government in sequence of the conference held between the premier and the leading officers of the Canadian Bankers' Association. The provincial government of the prairie provinces helped out in the financing of the 1929 crop. The dominion government is going to stand behind the banks in respect to the crop of the current year.

Details are not announced, and in fact, there is no reason to believe that they have yet to be worked out but the terms "orderly marketing" is understood to mean, as forecast yesterday, that there shall be no precipitate liquidation calculated to smash the market.

The banks have made substantial advances to the wheat pool and to other organizations or firms or persons not in the pool. In respect of such advances they have wheat and other securities. The wheat market has fallen down badly and there has been apprehension just what is being done by the banks should be disposed of. Such a thing might cause a panic not only in Canada, but in the U.S. market as well. The ramifications are very extensive and the problem on each side of the line very similar.

Arrangements for "ensuring the orderly marketing of the 1930 wheat crop" are understood to mean in essence that the banks will not attempt to liquidate the securities which they hold, the government unwilling to see them through. If necessary, there may be a formal guarantee but in any event, an assurance of like effect.

There will be no pegging of the price. The market, influenced by world conditions will take its ordinary course, but the trade will be safeguarded against the demoralization which, it is reasonably feared, would result from the banks calling their loans or realizing on wheat put up as security.

Of Course There Is A Santa Claus

Yes, I believe in Santa Claus. What would this world be without him? Lonely as a desert. No child can abide in it until that roistering old elf peeks his wise eye over the northern sky rim and blows an elfin horn.

Grown-ups are so drab. Life with them is so dreary. Its prunes and cereal and spinach and "Did you do your ears?" with long spans of lessons in between. Santa is a necessity.

A small person just has to know a beautiful secret, just has to be acquainted with magic, if he is to live with any degree of comfort in this very grown-up world, where every grubby fact is laid in by the heels to receive exacted homage even to the last punctuation mark and dollar sign. One has to have a friend skilled in the wisdom of unreal things, one able to whisk off the face of this ordinary world and disclose that land where wishing is having and laughter knows no tears.

Of course I believe in Santa Claus.

When one's ears grow deaf to the voices about them, when all that is happening takes on a sudden strangeness and a feeling of utter loneliness falls upon one's spirit, there must be a way of escape to that place where things come clear and plain, where all that happens becomes quite right and cozy and friendliness fills the air.

It is always a great help to have an imagination that sets things right at the exact moment when they appear all wrong. It is a great gift that enables one to summon the fiery charger from out a crooked stick, a dragon from under the hearth rug, and a sword of burnished steel by a cunning twist of the wrist. The staid world fades away and in its stead are stately castles whose corridors ring to one's stately tread, rainbows that carry one to fortune's gold, sugar-plum trees and nobody to bother.

It is in this pleasant place that Santa lives. Good old Santa who has brought smiles to the faces of countless little children through unnumbered years. Loving old Santa who has searched out the innermost secret yearnings and brought them to light in his knobby peek on Christmas morning.

He is coming. Prepare for him. Make a magic. Take a handful of children. Fill them to the eye with loving kindness, the spirit of Christmas. Think out secrets and bring them to pass. Fill the house with holly and fir and the spicy smell of Christmas goodies. Set out the red candles and deck the tree. He is coming.

But you must make a magic. A magic of love is what draws the reindeer across the sky, sets the alarm aglow and the herald angel singing. A magic of love will bring riches untold and joy, and Merry Christmas and Santa. Of course I believe in Santa. Don't you?

THE COMMUNITY CLUB

Will hold a dance in Blackfields Hall on Monday, December 29th. Holder of lucky ticket will receive $5.00. Admission 50c. Ladies please bring lunch.

The First of Our Broadcasts

The first Christmas Broadcast! When? Over 1800 years ago. Where? Above a Jordan plain, where angels sang their songs by night. What was it? "Glory to God in the highest, on earth Peace, Goodwill to men."

Through 20 centuries the angels' song of the first Christmas dawn has been broadcasted. From Canterbury, from Rome, from Moscow, from the lips of the children, from the great cathedrals of the Middle Ages, from tiny churches in the desolate places of the earth.

Was the song that the shepherds near Bethlehem were given ears to hear, really "on the air"? Have the dull ears of succeeding generations heard it in a sub-conscious way and hearing, ever so faintly, the message of peace and goodwill, had their hearts stirred to turn from their own pleasure to give comfort and pleasure to others.

In our generation, scientists have caught the music of a thousand choirs and have brought it to our homes. We sit by our own firesides and hear the old, old story told in the wonderful music of the great masters. It is relayed to us from Europe and surely the miracle of Pentecost is repeated for every man can hear it in his own tongue.

Around the world rings the angels' song of hope. In the desolate places of the north where night reigns, in the Southern Cross swings low in a tropic sky and the waves beat upon the coral reefs; on the prairie where the log churches are so far apart, men, women and little children hear the familiar hymns that tell the wonderful story of the birth of the Babe of Bethlehem.

The music of the air! Some people heard it before the radio was invented. Out in Saskatoon, a lady told a strange story: "When I was young, over 30 years ago, my husband and I and another man and his wife went out from Regina to the open prairie in an old covered wagon. How still the prairie was at night, but I used to hear far away music. I have a radio now and when the music is coming in loudly, I think of those nights so long ago. That was just what it sounded like."

A mother who had lost a young son years ago, now listens to Christmas music from afar. When he was dying, he said "Oh, mother, I can hear beautiful music." She says that she believes his ears were attuned to the music that was "on the air."

It is nearly a century since the well-known hymn: "It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold."

The poet of all the ages sang: "Still through the cloven skies they come, with peaceful wings unfurled. And still their heavenly anthem floats, o'er all the weary world."

What would he have said if he had known that an invention of man would carry the angels' song around the world. It is the same song with the same message of peace and goodwill that comes to us in the Christmas of 1930.

LACOMBE BEATS PONOKA

Playing before a good crowd, Lacombe took advantage of the break-off to defeat Ponoka 3 to 1 in a hotly contested game here Tuesday night. Both teams went it a fast clip throughout the whole of the first period but excellent work on the part of both goalies prevented any score.

Heavy going was experienced in the second period when the ice sheet began to get soft and this slowed up the game somewhat. Larsen opened the scoring for Ponoka when he went down and shot from outside the blue line, beating Charlesworth with a slow roller that deceived him. Five minutes later, from a narrow front, the Ponoka goal, Wilson put Lacombe on even terms when he flipped the disc past Wallace.

Half way through the third period L. Calkins and Cook broke away and the former made no mistake when he took Cook's pass in front of the goal. The Calkins brothers broke away on a pretty combination rush and L. Calkins took his brother's pass and beat Wallace for the third Lacombe counter.

The outstanding feature of the game was the sterling work of both goalies, Charlesworth in particular turning in a wonderful game.

PROTECTION FOR MOUTH AND THROAT

Exposure to damp weather, excessive use of voice, or smoking are frequently the cause of irritated, sore throats. Unless promptly cared for, serious complications often follow.

A gargle of one part Absorbine, Jr. to nine parts water will bring quick relief to the inflamed throat. And if there is congestion with the infection, as usually happens, break it up at once by rubbing the outside of the throat with a few drops of full-strength Absorbine, Jr.

To ease the breath and keep the mouth in a clean, wholesome condition at all times, the daily use of Absorbine, Jr., is a most ideal plan. It is ideal just a few drops in a little water morning and night. Get a bottle at your druggist—$1.25.

The Charity Dance sponsored by the Star Orchestra, was quite a success, and a neat sum was realized for relief work.

To the Public of Lacombe and Surrounding District

Christmas is an especially fine time to say that we feel indebted to you for the evidence of friendship you have shown. This has been a trying year for you, and for us, but hope urges us on, and tells us that tomorrow will be better.

When we pause and look back, and think of previous depressions we have weathered, we take up our load with renewed courage and faith in the future.

We send greetings, and our best wishes that the Treasure Ship of Health, Happiness and Good Fortune, will safely reach your port under full sail, and find a welcome harbour in the New Year.

Properly Brewed BEER

A Healthful Food

Thousands of the working classes, while engaged in hard, physical labor, find in beer a cheap, healthful food, which, besides its nourishing effect, possesses invigorating and strength-restoring qualities.

Beer, therefore, must be considered as a beverage conducive to health in the direction of moderation and true temperance.

ANNUAL MEETING of Y.W.A. of Saint Andrew's United Church

The Young Women's Auxiliary of Saint Andrew's United Church met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Parsons on Tuesday evening, Dec. 15th for their annual meeting. There were ten members present. The meeting opened with the President, Mrs. H. E. Wilson in the chair. After the usual opening exercises the business of the evening was taken up. Mrs. M. G. Cruickshank gave a report of the financial standing of the Society and of the proceeds received from the Bazaar held on Dec. 24th. It was found that the Society had successfully raised their allocation of $110 for this year, and it was decided to donate to the Church Board the sum of $20.00 for the purpose of helping in the financing of its needs. Mrs. Layton then took charge of the meeting and the election of officers for the coming year was proceeded with as follows: Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Pres; Miss E. J. Macdonell, Vice-President; Miss Lillian B. Sharp, Secretary; Mrs. M. G. Cruickshank, Treasurer; Mrs. John MacDonald, Strangers Secretary; Miss J. E. Moko, Press Secretary.

(675) THE VOYAGE.—A British Columbia creamery has recently been awarded a contract by a Hong Kong firm of provision merchants for the shipment of 30 boxes of butter per month. For the past eight years shipments of British Columbia butter have been made to Japan and it has sold a premium in the markets of that country.

With the formal opening of the 100 room Cornwallis Inn early in December at Kentville, N.S., the fifteenth hotel was added to the chain of Canadian Pacific Railway hostels from the Atlantic to the Pacific. A grand gala banquet sponsored by the Kentville Board of Trade at which nearly three hundred guests sat down including the Premier of Nova Scotia and Grant Hall, vice-president of the Company marked the opening of the new $500,000 hotel.

Herman Treile, of Wembley, Alta., for the second time took the title of "Wheat King of 1930" when he was awarded top honors at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago Tuesday with best red spring. Mr. Treile is even more satisfied with the third place which he won in hard red winter wheat which feat he is confident he has demonstrated the feasibility of raising high grade winter wheat in the western Canada and that he has moved the winter wheat line 700 miles to the north. An invitation to take a round-the-world cruise has been tendered Mr. Treile as a mark of appreciation by E. W. Wood, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Province of New Brunswick's revenue from motor vehicles for the fiscal year ended October 31 last amounted to $1,591,220, being 21 per cent. greater than the receipts from the same source in 1929, and establishing a new high record for the province, according to announcement made by Hon. D. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works.

An old obligation was recently liquidated by Canada when the sum of $67,000 was paid to Commander Otto Sverdrup, famous Norwegian explorer, in return for the services rendered by him in his explorations and discoveries in the Arctic Islands. His researches extended over an area of about 100,000 square miles and have been of great value to Canada.

Latest official report on the field crops of Canada estimates the 1930 wheat crop at 355,854,000 bushels or about 11,000,000 bushels more than the previous official estimate made last September. 374,000,000 bushels in the Prairie Provinces. The crop is about 91,000,000 bushels more than in 1929.

Great increase in pork production in Canada on account of the grain situation was predicted by Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture for Canada, at a recent banquet in Toronto given by him to agriculturalists, business executives and government representatives on behalf of the Federal Government at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto.

The annual pack of Fitch-Bell-Lumbar for the 1930 season is nearly 100,000 cases higher than the previous record of 172,000. The pack this year is 2,183,712 cases while in 1929 it was 1,927,476 cases. In 1929 it was 1,927,476 cases.

MISS BELLE HUNT DEAD

People of Lacombe and District were shocked and grieved by the sudden death of Miss Belle Hunt, on Sunday night. Miss Hunt was apparently in the best of health on Sunday, and her death was due to a heart attack. Miss Hunt is well known and liked by everyone who knew her, and she was for many years teller in the Royal Bank in Lacombe. Miss Hunt had many friends here, and she will be greatly missed by everyone. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

POTATO GROWERS MEET

The meeting advertised to be held in Lincoln Community Hall on Dec. 16th was a real success, some 70 of those interested in growing of Certified Seed Potatoes being present. Mr. G. DeLong, gave a very instructive and practical talk on the Potato Unit system of growing Certified Seed Potatoes.

Mr. Marrett, the Dominion Seed Inspector at Edmonton gave a lecture on the diseases of the potato, in which there are not very many troubles, some in Alberta. Mr. Eckert, the Chairman of Alberta Potato Growers Association gave a talk on the Cultivation, Roping and Storage, which was followed by a discussion of the several points mentioned by the various speakers.

At the close of the meeting it was unanimously decided to form a local Branch of the Certified Seed Potato Growers Assoc. The following officers were elected: Pres., J. Bradley; Sec.-Treas., W. Chesnor; Directors, O. J. Johnson, L. Oulton, Las. Saunders, L. Ingraham. There were seventeen members joined the Assoc.

LACOMBE WINS IN BIG FOUR GAME

Lacombe, Alta., Dec. 19—Lacombe's entry in the Big Four Hockey League defeated Red Deer here on Thursday evening 6 to 2. E. Calkins and Fraser did the bulk of the scoring in the game, which was hard-fought and clean throughout, only four penalties, all of a minor nature being handed out.

Following an evenly fought first period, Lacombe took a two-goal lead in the second session. E. Calkins counted in the first two minutes, while Wilson blazed in a shot from the blue line after Stanway, the Red Deer goalie, had been penalized for laying on the puck.

Early in the last period, Red Deer in a burst of speed tied the count, Cox and McMahon scoring in the first five minutes. The ice was rather soft, handicapping the combination of both teams. A near-fight started to the rear of the Red Deer goal, and while the visitors were short with penalties, L. Calkins and Fraser scored. Both goals came within seconds of each other.

Red Deer rallied, with four men up on the offensive, but Fraser sifted through twice to score. The final count was 6-2 in favor of the Lacombe team.

MAN CAN'T SLEEP, GETS NERVOUS, HATES PEOPLE

"I could not sleep and got so nervous I hated everybody. Since taking Vinol, I can sleep 10 hours and feel full of pep all day."—Julius Bender.

For 30 years doctors have prescribed Vinol because it contains important mineral elements of iron, calcium and cod liver phosphate. The very first bottle brings sound sleep and a big appetite. Eskimo Maid Is Crowned Beauty Of Arctic Circle

Enoslaik, 24-year-old brunette, is the reigning beauty of the Arctic. Andrew Brown, the big face and figure man of the north, selected this brown-eyed, brown-skinned Eskimo girl from an entry of two dozen in the first beauty contest ever held inside the Arctic circle. From Baker Lake, little trading post on Chesterfield Inlet, just a thousand miles north of Winnipeg, came word of Enoslaik's triumph. "Shining Star," her name means, and proudly, for the first time in her life, she can survey her prize-winning features. A mirror was her reward, the first she has ever owned. Brown, who organized the contest, declares Enoslaik has been ever seen. She lives not far from Baker Lake.

See the Hickok live leather belt at $2.00; and all other furnishings for men. Dad would appreciate a nice warm bathrobe and we have a beautiful line at $7.75.

We also have a full stock of Fine Shirts at very low prices.

We are headquarters for Men's Underwear in all the leading makes at prices that will surprise you.

See our line of Overcoats and sweaters before you buy. We will give you a price that will surprise you.

For Footwear of all kinds we are leaders. Our stock of Men's Fine Shoes, made by the leading manufacturers of Canada was never more complete, and we have priced them lower than ever.

Remember—We have everything in the gift line for men and young men. Let us help you solve your gift problem.
